MEETING MINUTES

Ms. Vega welcomed students and families to the FAFSA Completion Workshop. She discussed the importance of completing the FAFSA to access federal, state, and institutional financial aid opportunities for college and career training programs. Ms. Vega reviewed the workshop agenda and answered initial questions.

Ms. Vega guided students and parents through the process of creating their FSA IDs. Participants were informed that both the student and parent must have separate FSA IDs to access and sign the FAFSA application.

Ms. Vega assisted students in completing the FAFSA application. She reviewed required information, eligibility requirements, and common application sections to ensure accurate submission.

Ms. Vega provided guidance to parents on completing their section of the FAFSA. She reviewed required financial information, consent requirements, and electronic signatures needed to finalize the application.

Ms. Vega addressed individual questions and provided one-on-one support to families who needed additional assistance with creating FSA IDs or completing FAFSA requirements.

Ms. Vega thanked students and families for attending the workshop and completing the FAFSA process. She encouraged participants to monitor their email and FAFSA accounts for updates and reminded them to complete any additional financial aid requirements requested by colleges or universities.
